Geraldine D. Williams

Geraldine D. "Geri" (Lescard) Williams, 70, died Saturday, (February, 2, 2013) in Farmington, CT surrounded by her loving family, after a courageous battle with A.L.S. She was the beloved wife of the late Frederick Williams. Geri was born in Boston, MA and lived in Tyngsboro until 1979 when she relocated to W. Hartford and later Farmington, CT where she resided. She was the daughter of the late Albert F. Lescard and her mother Lucy (Eosco) Lescard of Tyngsboro, MA. She received her education at Lowell High School and New England School of Art and Design in Boston. She also studied with internationally known artists. Her professional career included awards for her work as a forensic artist in Massachusetts working on National Cases for the Lowell Police Department. She also served on the Art Advisory Board at the UConn Health Center, and also published a cancer prevention coloring book. Geri's artwork has appeared in numerous juried exhibits and is also included in Private and Corporate Collections throughout the United States and Europe. She designed a Pewter Commemorative Medallion for St. Thomas the Apostle Church and School. She was a gallery sitter of W. Hartford Art League. On Oct. 21, 2000, Geri was honored by the dignity of being Knighted a "Dame" by a Military Order in Washington D.C. In addition to her mother, Geri is survived by her sister, Ellen Reilly and her husband Frank of Pelham, NH and her brother Albert Lescard and his wife Jian of Hudson, NH; seven step-grandchildren; three step-great-grandchildren, four nieces and two nephews; as well as many grand nieces and nephews and many loving friends. Donations may be made in Geri's name to The Caring Fund at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford, Connecticut 06119 or to the ALS Association 1275 K Street NW- Suite 1050, Washington, D.C. 20005.
