

Bonnie Johnson Potz

Bonnie Johnson Potz

Art Educator

Bonnie Potz Johnson, American art educator. Recipient Best in Show award 57th Annual Art Exhibition, New Haven, 1986, Commissioned Artwork John Dempsey Hospital, Farmington, Connecticut, 1988.

Background

- Bonnie Johnson Potz was born on January 8, 1947 in Keyser, West Virginia, United States.

Education

- Bachelor, Berea College, Kentucky, 1968. Master of Arts Teaching, Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut, 1970. Master of Arts Liberal Studies, Wesleyan University, 1981.
- Certified supervisor, Central Connecticut State University, New Britain, 1989.

Career

- Instructor art Valley Regional High School, Deep River, Connecticut, 1969—1979. Studio artist Farmington Valley Arts Center, Avon, 1980—1988. Instructor art Connecticut public/private schools, 1987—1991.
- Adjunct assistant professor Iowa State University, Ames, 1991—1995.

Works

- Artist abstract murals.

"Breeder" by Bonnie Johnson Potz, 38x38 inches, terra cotta relief
(hundreds of compost pinched units)