

Artist: Irma Barish

Irma Barish works in all media: oils, watercolor, pastels, ink and pencil. She studied art in Mukhina's Art Academy in St. Petersburg (of the former USSR) and in Kiev Art College (Ukraine). She holds a Masters Degree in fine art. She now lives in the US and has continued and completed her art education in a private studio in Springfield, Mass.

She is a member of the Connecticut Fine Art Academy. Her art works have been awarded several times on juried shows. She is available for commissioned work. Portrayed in this room are a few samples of her work. Please e-mail us for further information.

You can purchase any of the paintings displayed here. Just e-mail us with the details given on the information for buyers page. Please note that prices do not include the cost of posting, packing and insurance.