

Jack Sonenberg

American, born 1925

Jack Sonenberg is active/lives in New York, Ontario. Jack Sonenberg is known for graphics, abstract, sculptor. Jack Sonenberg is a visual artist.

Jack Sonenberg, Canadian artist. Ford Foundation grantee, 1966; Guggenheim Foundation grantee, 1973, New York State CAPS, 1973-1976, National Endowment Arts grantee (sculpture), 1984-1985, New York Foundation for the Arts grantee (painting) 1989.

Background

---

Sonenberg, Jack was born on December 28, 1925 in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Son of Solomon and Leah (Saltzman) Sonenberg.

Education

---

- Student, New York University, 1949. Bachelor of Fine Arts, Washington University, 1951.

Career

---

- Member faculty department art Queens College, 1970-1972, Brooklyn College, 1972, Brooklyn College (School of Visual Arts), 1962-1973. Member faculty Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, since 1968. Chairman painting and drawing department Pratt Institute Brooklyn, since 1973.

Works

---

- One-man shows, Byron Gallery, New York City, 1965, 68, Hampton Institute, 1968, University Northern Iowa, 1969, Grand Rapids (Michigan) Art Museum, 1968, Flint Institute Arts, 1972, Fischbach Gallery, New York City, 1973, 55 Mercer Gallery, New York City, 1980, group shows include, Whitney Museum, 1967, 73, Museum Modern Art, 1974, Art Institute Chicago, 1975, Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, 1980, Rutgers University, New Jersey, 1980, National Gallery, Washington, 1980, Moscow Artists Union, 1989. Group shows include Painting Self-Evident, Piccolo Spolete, 1992. Represented in permanent collections, Guggenheim Museum, Whitney Museum, Washington University, Metropolitan Museum, Bradley University, National Gallery Canada, West Virginia University.