Linda Webber

About the Artist:

Linda Webber is the art curator for UConn Health in Farmington and an interior designer. She began art education at the High School of Music & Art in New York City, received a bachelor of fine arts degree from Boston University and a master's in education from the University of Hartford. She previously taught elementary through college art in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Artist Statement:

"Ballooning over Farmington, I was thrilled to see the landscape from that perspective. I was hesitant about going for the ride because I am slightly afraid of heights! With acrylic paint, I used color, line, shape and texture to modify the visual world to provide a certain calm and serenity. Glad that I did not give in to my fear because the painting won a prize in the Connecticut Academy of Fine Arts Show."
