Luciana Heineman

About the Artist:

Luciana Heineman is a well-known artist with more than 25 years of teaching experience in both oil and watercolor. She has studied in Italy, and at the University of Hartford Art School, and with many distinguished Connecticut artists. Her work is part of permanent collections at various institutions including Aetna, The Hartford, Windsor and East Hartford Town Halls, and Western New England College.

Luciana studied at Wesleyan University and Central Connecticut State University and has received an Associates Degree in Liberal Arts from the Greater Hartford Community College. Over ten years she has perfected her skills by studying with Paul Zimmerman, James McManus, Estell Coniff, Alice Bronson, and many well-known national artists. Her works of art are in numerous permanent collections: Aetna Life Insurance, Springfield Hospital, Town of East Hartford, Town of Windsor, United Bank, Society for Savings, and Western New England College. Luciana was commissioned to paint a painting for the late Governor Grasso and also painted a large mural for the YMCA in Hartford Connecticut. Her works have found international appeal from chapels in Italy (murals) to private collections in France, Italy, Germany & Canada.

Luciana has participated in group exhibits, invitational art shows in some of the most prestigious museums: Wadsworth Atheneum; New Britain Museum of American Art; Norwich Museum, in Connecticut and Springfield Museum and Pitsfield Museum in Mass. Luciana has had several one person shows in New England and in Italy.

Luciana has received over 80 awards. She belongs to National Pen Women of America, Connecticut Academy of Fine Arts, Connecticut Watercolor Society, Connecticut Women Artists, New Haven Paint and Clay, Springfield Art League, Academic Artists Association, West Hartford Art League and others.
